PROTECTION

Against Burglary Against Fire Against Decay

Once your house is properly painted it is insured against decay. Decay is just as destructive as fire.

Paint, to serve its real purpose, must protect—a pleasing effect is only a by-product. Buy your house paint with this thought in mind, then you will think about quality as well as color.

CO. A RATED HIGH BY MILITARY MEN

Capt. Russel C. Langdon, U. S. A., inspector-instructor for the North Carolina National Guard, was in Hickory Friday with Mrs. Langdon on his return to Raleigh from Asheville and took occasion to pay Co. A, First Infantry, N. C. N. G., a high compliment. With Capt. Geo. L. Lyerly the army officer inspected two proposed sites for a 1,000-yard rifle range, and Captain Langdon said the prospects were good for Hickory's securing a model range.

Captain Langdon said that the Hickory company was rated very high by the state and federal authorities, that the local armory was among the best in the state, and that the support given the company was highly appreciated by the military authorities in Raleigh and Washington. He said the people of Hickory had a right to be proud of their military company.

Captain Langdon said the American whose passport had been recalled by the Washington government because he was carrying general military information to the Austrian government at the instance of Ambassador Dumba was James F. J. Archibald, a New York World war correspondent in 1898. Archibald was wounded during one of the engagements in Cuba.

LENOIR COLLEGE STARTING OFF WELL

Lenoir college, with an enrollment of 200 the first week of the fall term, bids fair to have the best session in its history. The opening exercises were held Tuesday morning and President R. L. Fritz and his faculty have been welcoming new students to the campus ever since. The attendance last year reached 270, but it is confidently expected that the number will exceed 300 before many weeks.

Of the students approximately 125 are from a distance, the college drawing ambitious young men and women from many sections. This has been a busy week, and the faculty and students have been preparing for the fall term in earnest.

Dean Little has returned from the University of Wisconsin, where he took a course in the most famous of American universities.

Mr. Stanford Returns.
Rev. A. L. Stanford returned last night from Marion, where he conducted a revival meeting for Rev. L. D. Thompson. The Hickory preacher reported a splendid meeting. He will occupy his pulpit at both services tomorrow.

WILL FILE PROTEST.

County Commissioners to Oppose 15 Per Cent Increase.

That the Catawba board of commissioners was not pleased with the increased assessment of real estate in this county is stated by the Newton Enterprise, which says that Mr. A. A. Whitener of Hickory, attorney for the board, is drawing up a formal protest to be filed with the state tax commission. The increase ordered by the state commission was 15 per cent, Catawba being among several counties which was thus dealt with by the state authorities. Other counties are following suit, or at least doing likewise, and there will be merry times in Raleigh soon. It is a safe guess that the commission will stand fast, as it was stated in Raleigh several days ago that raises would be necessary in order to approach equalization.
